An 11-year-old black Labrador retriever, Saint is a retired service dog from Saint Francis Service Dogs of Roanoke, Virginia, who began experiencing mobility issues and hind limb weakness. Now that Saint regularly visits the veterinary college’s physical rehabilitation service, he has made a significant turnaround. "He has a job again," said Flori Bliss, a licensed veterinary technician who works with Saint. "He really lights up."