

Linda Blackmon Biography

Linda Blackmon is a relatively new Recruitment Specialist with the USDA working in the Animal and Plant Health Inspection Service (APHIS) division for the past 10 months. Before joining the Federal Government, Linda worked as a Staffing Specialist and Management Analyst with the District of Columbia Government for 5 years. She is a native Washingtonian and a graduate of Hampton University. She is currently finishing her Master's program at Bowie State University in Human Resource Development and expects to graduate this spring.